THE DALLAS FOUNDATION

Good morning!

Do you know a volunteer under the age of 40 who has directly impacted a nonprofit organization? Have they shown commitment by serving others in Dallas County? Do they use their innovative leadership skills to go above and beyond, time and time again?

If you know such a person, consider nominating them for The Dallas Foundation's 2013 "Good Works Under 40" Awards!

Co-sponsored by The Dallas Morning News, five finalists will be selected this year. Four of the finalists will receive $2,500 each for the charity of their choice; one finalist will be honored with an $8,000 grant for his or her chosen nonprofit.

The azaleas and bluebonnets are finally blooming, and now we're zooming toward summer. But we have news to share before all those graduation announcements start filling up your inbox.

I want to introduce our new donor services associate, Ashley Silva, who started in early April. Ashley has experience in corporate philanthropy and community relations, and a bachelor's degree in journalism and broadcasting from Oklahoma State University—Stillwater. We are so pleased to have her on staff.

Best regards,

ANIMAL Welfare

On behalf of the Companion Animal Funders Coalition and the Big Fix for Big D partner agencies, thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to join us for lunch last week.

It was a pleasure to meet you and learn more about your organization and the important work you do throughout Dallas. We are gratified by your interest in helping us deliver Big Fix for Big D services to more pet owners and to caretakers of community cats in our city's underserved neighborhoods.
